2.1.2 Owners of domestic animals, other than cats, must ensure that the animal is physically restrained at all times. An animal is physically restrained where (1) if on the owner’s premises, the animal cannot go beyond the exterior boundaries of the owner’s premises; (2) the animal is under physical restraint by a leash or other similar device; or (3) the animal is otherwise under the physical control of the owner by some other device or means other than voice control, eye control or signal control.

2.1.5 Livestock shall not be allowed to roam or graze freely in the residential or allotted area(s) of the Reservation. All livestock in the residential or allotted area(s) of the Reservation not confined within a stock-tight fence shall be considered as stray animals.
SECTION 2. SEIZURE, IMPOUNDMENT AND CLAIM OF STRAY ANIMALS.

2.2.1 Any stray animal found within Reservation boundaries may be seized and impounded by any Law Enforcement Officer and/or the Tribe’s Duly Authorized Agent.

2.2.2 A stray animal that has been seized and impounded pursuant to this Ordinance shall be held for a period of at least three (3) business days prior to the animal’s disposal. During this retention period the animal shall be available to be claimed by its owner. The owner must pay all costs and fees assessed pursuant to this and any other Tribal Ordinance prior to claiming the animal, unless otherwise agreed upon by the Tribal Council and the owner.

SECTION 3. NOTICE TO OWNERS AND DISPOSAL OF SEIZED AND IMPOUNDED ANIMALS.

2.3.1 Any stray animal that does not have an identification tag and that has not been claimed by its owner within three (3) business days shall be disposed of by the Tribe and/or the Tribe’s Duly Authorized Agent. The animal may be disposed of in any manner authorized under applicable law, including adoption, release to an animal rescue and adoption organization, or euthanasia, unless other means of disposal are identified in any rules or regulations adopted pursuant to this ordinance.

2.3.2 No stray animal which has an identification tag and which has been seized and impounded pursuant to the provisions of this Ordinance shall be disposed of without notice to the animal’s owner, if the owner’s identity is known to the Tribe and/or the Tribe’s Duly Authorized Agent. 2.4.2 A potentially dangerous animal may be off the owner’s premises only if the animal is securely tethered with a rope, chain, or other similar device adequate to restrain the animal and prevent injury to others. Under no circumstances shall a potentially dangerous animal be left unattended when off the owner’s premises.

2.4.3 Any Vicious Animal, as defined by this Ordinance, shall be seized, impounded, and disposed of by the Tribe and/or the Tribe’s Duly Authorized Agent. Such animal may be immediately disposed of upon seizure. There shall be no mandatory retention period, and the owner of the animal shall have no right to claim the animal. This provision shall not apply where the injury inflicted by the animal occurred when the person who was injured was committing a willful trespass or tort upon the animal owner’s property, or where the injury occurred as a result of provoking the animal.
SECTION 5. OBSTRUCTION OF TRIBAL LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICER OR AGENT.

2.5.1 No person shall interfere with or obstruct any Law Enforcement Officer or the Tribe’s Duly Authorized Agent in the discharge of his/her duties while enforcing the provisions of this Ordinance, or any regulation promulgated pursuant to this Ordinance. Any such interference or obstruction constitutes a violation of this Ordinance.

3.1.2 An action for a violation of this Ordinance shall be commenced by such person as the Tribal Council may designate. A person so designated shall file a complaint according to procedures established by the Tribal Council until such time as the Tribal Court is established, at which time the filing procedures shall be those set forth in the rules of the Tribal Court.

3.1.3 Notice of the action shall be given as provided by the Tribal Council until such time as the Tribal Court is established, at which time notice shall be given according to the rules of the Tribal Court.

SECTION 2. IMPLEMENTATION AND ENFORCEMENT.

3.2.1 The Tribal Council may adopt such rules or regulations as may be necessary for the proper and effective implementation and enforcement of this Ordinance including, but not limited to, rules or regulations governing or limiting the possession of domestic animals on the Reservation. A violation of any such duly adopted regulation shall be deemed a violation of this Ordinance.

3.2.2 The Tribal Council may adopt rules and regulations for the seizure, impoundment and disposal of any stray or vicious animal.

3.2.3 The Tribal Council shall provide notice of any proposed regulation to be adopted pursuant to this Ordinance. Notice shall be posted at the offices of the Tribal Administration and other designated areas, and shall state the date, time and place of a hearing on the proposed regulation and include a brief description of the proposed action and the final date on which comments will be accepted. The Tribal Council shall hold a hearing concerning any proposed regulation that is open to the General Membership, at the designated date, time and place. Both written and oral comments may be accepted at this hearing.

This schedule may be amended from time to time as the costs and fees associated with seizure, impoundment, and disposal of animals change.

3.3.2 In addition to costs and fees imposed pursuant to Section 3.3.1 of this Ordinance, the owner of any animal that has been seized, impounded, or disposed of shall be assessed penalties as determined by the Tribal Council. All penalties must be paid prior to redemption of an animal, unless otherwise agreed upon by the Tribe and the owner. This penalty shall not exceed $1,000.00 per violation.

3.3.3 Property owners who allow a renter or lessee of their property to maintain animals on the premises in violation of this Ordinance shall be financially responsible for any fines imposed, or any injury to person or property sustained, as a result of such violation if the tenant fails to comply with the provisions of this Ordinance.

3.3.4 The Tribal Court or, in the absence of the Tribal Court, the Tribal Council shall have the authority to require anyone who violates the provisions of this Ordinance to reimburse the Tribe, or the entity or person injured, for injuries to person or property suffered as a result of the violation.

3.3.5 If a cost, fee, fine or reimbursement is required to be paid by a Tribal member pursuant to this Ordinance, and that Tribal member fails to pay the amount due for thirty days after a notice is mailed to him/her advising of the amounts due, the Tribe may withhold the amount due from that Tribal member’s next per capita payment(s) paid by the Tribe to that Tribal member.
SECTION 4. SEVERABILITY.

3.4.1 The provisions of this Ordinance are severable. If any part or provision of this Ordinance is held to be void by a tribal or federal court having jurisdiction to make such determination, the decision of such court shall not affect or impair any remaining provision of the Ordinance.
